ORDER

This matter is before the court on the motion to continue by defendant Donald Rigler (Rigler) (Filing No. 19). Rigler seeks a sixty-day continuance of the trial of this matter which is scheduled for June 16, 2014. Rigler's counsel represents Rigler will file an affidavit whereby Rigler consents to the motion and acknowledges he understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act. Upon consideration, the motion will be granted.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. Rigler's motion to continue trial (Filing No. 19) is granted.
2. Trial of this matter is re-scheduled for July 28, 2014, before Judge Joseph F. Bataillon and a jury. The ends of justice have been served by granting such motion and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. The additional time arising as a result of the granting of the motion, i.e., the time between June 4, 2014, and July 28, 2014, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act for the reason that defendant's counsel requires additional time to adequately prepare the case. The failure to grant additional time might result in a miscarriage of justice. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B).

DATED this 4th day of June, 2014.

s/ Thomas D. Thalken
United States Magistrate Judge
